

CONTENTS

István Ambrus 7

Customary Law and Analogy in the Old and Recent Criminal Practice

Elemér Balogh 23

Jóska Sobri, the Most Famous Outlaw in Bakony

Szilvia Bató 33

The Role of Medical Findings in Criminal Proceedings Initiated for Infanticide

Zoltán József Fazakas 49

Constitutional Foundations and Practice of the Criminal Law and the Hungarian Minority in Romania between 1918 and 1940

Csaba Fenyvesi 69

Shocking Criminal Case in Komló in 1989 (Investigation of a Child Murder Case)

Csongor Herke 77

Wrongfully Convicted – The Lessons of the Bank Robbery in Mór

Hunor Kádár 87

The Man Who Killed for Religious Reasons – The Serial Killer from Nădrag

Szabolcs Mátyás 93

The role of versions in the investigation of the Teréz Boulevard blast

Máté Sivadó 103

Criminological Analysis of Some Aspects of the Series of Murders Committed against Roma People

András Szabó 115

A Victim or a Criminal? Lessons from the Simek Kitty Case from the Perspective of Twenty Years

Emőd Veress 125

About the Life and Death of Attorney Elemér Óvári from Cluj