

CONTENTS

István Ambrus 7

Konfliktusok Angyal Pál és Finkey Ferenc büntetőjogi felfogásában – korabeli jogesetek tükrében

Szilvia Bató 19

Variations of Culpability Patterns: “Accident” in the Tribunal Practice of Csanád County during the Hungarian Reform Era

Andrea Domokos 39

The Command “to Not Kill” Is a Strong Commands

Péter Dulai 47

Female Death Row Inmate in the Case of a Double Dismemberment Murder

Balázs Elek 55

Application of the Csemegi Code Today

Csaba Fenyvesi 65

Investigation of the Serial Theft Case in Pécs in 1988, with Special Focus on the Perpetrator’s Motivation

Ludovít Fidler 79

From the History of Organized Crime in Slovakia

Zoltán Hautzinger 95

The Essence and the Historical Development of the Law Enforcement

Barbara Katalin Herke-Fábos 107

A Virtual Scenario about a Juvenile at Risk from a Crime Prevention Point of View, or the Guardianship Practice of Preventive Patronage

Csongor Herke 125

Criminal Procedural and Forensic Science Edifications from the Hand Grenade Case in Pécs

Hunor Kádár 143

“Rîmaru” – A Family of Serial Killers

Roland Kelemen 155

The First World War Baize Fraud Case

Veronika Lehotay 171

Proceedings against Folk Writers in the Horthy Era

Zsolt Lippai, Sándor Kardos 185

About the Court of Honour

Szabolcs Nagy 203

Prosecution of the “Executioner” – A Late Criminal Proceeding Was Initiated Due to the Execution of Parish Priest Ferenc Wolmuth

János Sallai 217

Textbooks for Police Officers’ Courses and Commissioned Officer Training

Ágnes Solt 227

Long Life Sentence – Effective Atonement

László Sörös 245

Women Using Arsenic

András Szabó 265

The Perception of the “Whiskey Robber” in the Public Opinion and the Media

About the authors 277